

Questions for Art Deco Poster Critique

Translation – How successful is the poster in showing the Art Deco style and pulling from the original as an inspiration for this piece?

Communication – Do you get a sense of what this movie in the poster is about? (What is the story and genre of this film?) Do you have a suggestion concerning this topic?

Structure – How successful was the designer in creating a movie poster? (Do you get that this is a movie poster?) Did they use the required information from the instructions? Was the information presented and organized in a way similar to how it would be on a movie poster?

Voice – Was the designer successful in making a poster that reflects the work of the original, and simultaneously shows a unique vision from the designer? (Is this something you have seen before, or is it special?) Do you have a suggestion concerning this topic?

Question – (write a question to ask your peers about the poster)
